

To the FCC: We are completely happy with New Jersey's Telephone Consumer Protections just as they are. We do not need you to change them and see no redeeming features in your opening up our lines to more telemarketers. If you do it will be obvious that you will be doing the bidding of the "special interests" and not promoting the welfare of the huge majority of the citizens of this state. Leave it alone !!!